AN ARTICLE ON FALL SPRAYING OF INTEREST TO GROWERS

The fall application of spray remedies for certain diseases and insects affecting our trees and vines is a recognized necessity. The County Commissioner of Horticulture therefore wishes to call attention of the growers to the fact, and urges a careful spray campaign that our fruits may maintain their record as to quality and quantity.

PRUNES—The month of November is ideal for spraying prune trees for control of the green aphid which causes the dripping honey dew in spring and summer and the consequent blackening of the trees, leaves and fruit. The fall brood of this aphid is now on the few remaining leaves ready to lay their winter eggs and can be easily killed. The same treatment controls perfectly the brown apricot scale so common and so destructive a pest on prune orchards, and will also kill any tussock or other moth eggs, red spider or other insects that may be on the trees, as well as clean off the moss. In fact a careful spray at this time acts as a general cleanser to the tree and for all purposes we recommend the use of crude oil emulsion prepared as follows:

CRUDE OIL EMULSION
Place 1 to 2 gallons of liquid soap in a 5 gallon measure, add a like amount of water and stir thoroughly, and then add to 88 gallons of water stirring well. To this add the 10 gallons of crude oil slowly while the stirring continues. If a larger or smaller barrel is used make in proportion.

These instructions should be followed to the letter if success is to be achieved, for the preparation of the spray is of utmost importance. If the water used is hard you may have to use 2 gallons of soap and if the water is soft 1 gallon will suffice. This can only be determined by trial. Do not use fuel oil or any other substitute for the crude oil which should run not over 19 degrees baume test. If you use a crude oil emulsifier in place of the liquid soap a less quantity will be sufficient. In this case 1 1/2 to 1 gallon to the 88 gallons of water will be found adequate to emulsify the oil.

It is hard whale oil soap is used the following formula should be followed:

Dissolve 10 pounds of whale oil in not less than 10 gallons of water by boiling, slice the soap and it will dissolve more quickly. Place this in the spray tank which should contain about 10 gallons of water. Thoroughly agitate and add enough water to make 90 gallons, then add 2 pounds of caustic soda (concentrated lye,) dissolved in water. With the agitator running add 10 gallons of crude oil, slowly.

In applying the spray we prefer a rather coarse nozzle connected at an angle to the rod. This will enable you to hit the underside of the leaves and twigs where the aphid and scale are to be found. Be sure to cover all the new growth as it is to this that the young scale are more securely fastened. Start at the top of the tree and work down, being careful to cover every inch of surface as the work well done will save repetition for the next three years.

APPLES—We advise a fall spray for the control of the purple or curl leaf aphid on apple and this will also prove effective against tussock moth eggs, San Jose scale, brown mite and any other hibernating insects. In the case of apples, as with the prune aphid, the fall brood of aphid is now on the leaves and will remain there until about the 1st of December. A spray applied somewhere from the 15th to the end of November will if carefully done, effectively combat this pest. The destruction of these fall aphid prevents the laying of the over-wintering eggs which produce the spring stem mothers. If only the aphid is to be destroyed one half the amount of crude oil may be used, but we would generally advise the whole formula which is exactly as given above for the prune trees.

PEACHES—A fall spray of Bordeaux mixture is the only satisfactory way of combating the peach blight. This should be applied during the first half of November, and is made as follows:

BORDEAUX MIXTURE
Blue Stone (copper sulphate) 5 lbs.
Lime 6 lbs., Water to make 50 gallons.

Dissolve the bluestone in 25 gallons of water by suspending in the top of the barrel in a coarse sack. If the bluestone is pounded up it will dissolve more quickly. Slake the lime and dilute until you have 25 gallons then pour the two together into the spray tank through a strainer. Be sure and use only WOODEN VESSELS in preparing. If a stock solution is desired dissolve the bluestone in water at the rate of a pound to the gallon. Slake the lime in the same quantity of water, and pour into the spray tank as desired. This solution must be used at once after mixing together.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETS

Contributions To Be Received To Help the Suffering Belgians
—Carload of Supplies To Be Sent by County.

The Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce met in regular monthly session at the City Hall, Monday night.

The meeting was called to order by President A. M. Thomson, and the following officers were present: Vice-President R. L. Watt, F. T. Duhring, E. T. Casson and Chas. La Torres.

The Black Point Cut-Off Committee reported satisfactory progress on the building of the highway and the bridge.

Improving the roads in this section was discussed at length, as the sentiment prevails among the people of this valley that more permanent and better roads are needed. It was decided that a committee be named by President Thomson to confer with the Board of Supervisors at an early date, in the effort to secure more permanent roads.

It was also decided that the local Chamber of Commerce shall co-operate with other sections of the county in the movement to aid the stricken Belgians. The great heart of humanity throughout the civilized world responds to the call to reach out the helping hand to the sufferers in the war zone. No nation is more generous and sympathetic than America, and every state in the Union will hear with willing ear that plea from foreign lands.

California has ever been foremost in dispensing charities, and the great Banner County has never failed her state when necessity was apparent. Sonoma County is taking up this work with a will, and every district will co-operate. Sonoma County is to make up a carload of dried and canned fruit, which is to be given free railway transportation. Money collected toward this cause will be spent in Sonoma County entirely to make up the car.

All donations may be sent in to Secretary John Picetti of the Chamber of Commerce, or may be left at the Duhring store.

Y. M. I. BALL THANKSGIVING EVE

Will Give a Masquerade Ball on Wednesday Evening, November
Twenty-Fifth

Sonoma Valley Council, Young Men's Institute, is perfecting arrangements for the annual Grand Masque Ball which has been given under the auspices of the popular fraternity, on Thanksgiving Eve, for many years past, and has ever anticipated with much pleasure.

The committee of arrangements comprises Messrs. John F. Picetti, Wm. J. Kehoe and Wm. J. Kennedy, and these gentlemen are competent and active spirits of the order.

There's to be a handsome prize awarded the best sustained character, and another to the most original. A booby prize awaits the impersonator to whom it belongs.

Music for the occasion is to be provided by the Pauli-Gottenberg Orchestra, and a sumptuous ravioli-turkey supper will be served in the Union Hotel dining-room.

Fair hands are already busily at work fashioning pretty and original costumes, and if one is to judge from the bits of gossip one hears, there will be considerable rivalry for the pretty prizes which are on display in the window of Lutgens' Confectionery.

"OUR BACHELORS"

Rehearsals are in active progress for the mirth provoking comedy, "Our Bachelors," which is to be the feature of entertainment at the Bazaar to be given by St. Barbara's Guild, at Union Hall, Friday night, Dec. 4th. The production is being directed by the veteran actor, A. L. Wells, and the several characters are to be interpreted by Mesdames Wm. Von Hacht and Violet Pressey; Misses Gladys Simmons and Anita Gassner; Messrs. Ralph Hotz, A. L. Wells, Dal Emparan, Paul Thomson, Wm. Von Hacht and Emory Ranker. The Bazaar, as has been previously announced, will continue two days, Dec. 3d and 4th.

Congregational Church
(T. M. PRICE, Pastor.)

Sunday morning worship at 11 o'clock. The morning service in its didactic portion will consist the way to see God. We cannot admire, neither can we have affection for what we cannot see. God has given every man an ability to regain health, and he has given every man the ability to receive the ministrations of the great Physician, cure. When we are cured of inside ity and indifference, we can see God, and to see Him is to love Him. The ordinary selfish life that worships itself is as blind as a bat in sunshine before the beauties of the world in which he lives. It struggles as if the only thing of importance was to exist and get along in life. Nothing can stop our getting along. Soon we will have advanced to toothless, springless, sightless old age and we will keep getting along, but to what destiny? You cannot act perfectly until you see all there is about us, and church attendance will open your eyes to many things. We ask your attention to spiritual things for your own good.

The Y. P. S. C. E. will meet at 6:30 p. m. Miss Buchanan will conduct the service.

Young men are the world's assets and old men the world's liabilities. Save an old man and you save a unit. Save a young man, and you save a geometrical progression. The old man is a has-been and the young man is a may-be—a perhaps a joyous possibility. His philosophy of life is important. With one mode of life he may bless succeeding generations, with the other he will end in disaster, for there is but one right and one wrong. You can be wrong without trying, but no one ever was right without trying. On the ocean of time you never can enter a port without sailing for it. The strength of youth is a trust, and you are expected to yield to your race a benefaction. We will talk about this next Sunday evening.

PLAY PROVES GREAT SUCCESS

Splendid Production Witnessed
by Large Audience—Efforts of Mrs. Burlingame Fittingly Recognized.

"A Japanese Wedding," the delightful Japanese play presented in connection with the bazaar, given by the Congregational Ladies' Aid, Friday and Saturday nights of last week, proved the most entertaining and successful production, from every point of view, ever presented in our city.

The various characters in the charming oriental novelty were interpreted pleasingly, eliciting the greatest commendation. The leading roles—Japanese sweethearts—were enacted by the Misses Nancy Bates and Henrietta Weber, in which the rich voice and splendid dramatic talent of the former, and the charming personality of the latter won the sympathy and admiration of the audience. Misses Emma Johnson and Helen Rowell were clever and captivating as American college girls, and this was equally true of the Misses Zoleta Bates and Helen Antrim, who were Japanese maidens. Mrs. W. L. McAllister played well the dignified Japanese mother, and Mr. McAllister displayed equal talent as an oriental nobleman. At Jansen, Frank Knolle, Ralph Busby and little Donald Prestwood were excellent in their respective parts. clever Master Donald being especially so and making a decided "hit."

Last, but not by long odds the least, is tribute due Mrs. Carrie A. Burlingame, who managed and directed the presentation, and also evinced her fine dramatic ability as a Buddhist priest. In recognition of the untireless and efficient service given by Mrs. Burlingame, she was presented by the trustees of the Congregational Church with a suitably engraved, gold la valiere. Mrs. Burlingame is, indeed, to be congratulated on the success achieved. Nor is this to be wondered at. Mrs. Burlingame has the ability, the energy and the determination to carry through to successful completion any undertaking of which she has the management.

"A Japanese Wedding" was a noteworthy production, complete in every point of detail, and is to be pleasantly remembered. The receipts from the sale of refreshments, needlework, etc., were very satisfying to the ladies in charge.

Mesdames A. H. Bates, H. J. Wicker and Pauline McMullin had charge of the needlework; Mesdames Robt. Poppe, Wagner and Cowgill served the coffee; Mesdames M. Clewe and B. F. Campbell and Miss Anna Pemberton presided at the ice cream stand; Mesdames Chas. Cutler and B. Borden supervised the Golden Hour Club booth; Mesdames Schofner, C. E. Johnson, H. F. Bates, and H. W. Gottenberg conducted the sale of candy, and Mrs. R. L. Watt had charge of the grab bag.

FORMER SONOMA
PASTOR DEAD
From the Napa Register of a fortnight back, we note the death of Rev. H. C. Tallman, the venerable itinerant pastor of the Methodist church, and known throughout this section of the state as a man who has devoted his entire life to church work. He had reached the age of eighty-nine years, and after but two weeks of failing health died under the weight of his many years. Deceased was born in Ohio. He came to California in 1865 and settled in the Napa valley, which he always called home, although summoned to preach the word of God in many cities and towns in northern California, including Calistoga, Yuba City, Forestville, Occidental, Elk Grove, and other places. He retired from active life about eight years ago. Besides his widow three children survive him. Rev. Tallman had a wide circle of friends in Sonoma, where he resided for some time, when he filled the pulpit of the Methodist-Episcopal Church as pastor.

LOCAL NEWS OF SONOMA AND IMMEDIATE VICINITY

Mine Host Frank Koenig of the Union was a business visitor in San Francisco the fore part of the week.

Dr. W. B. Hayes was a prominent Sonoma visitor in Berkeley where he spent the week end.

Mrs. Angela Canepa of Kentucky street has purchased a building lot at Boyes Springs and will shortly commence the erection of a modern summer home on the property. Mr. Canepa intends to spend the summer months at the new residence. Work on the construction of the building will be commenced at once. A relative of Mrs. Canepa, who resides near Boyes, will build the new home.—Petaluma Courier.

Mrs. L. Lutgens returned to her home in this city, Friday night of last week, after a fortnight's sojourn in Los Angeles, whither she had been summoned by the serious illness of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Harry Lutgens. Mrs. Lutgens, Sr., enjoyed her trip in the Southland immensely, and brought the welcome news that her charming daughter-in-law is well on the road to recovery—a fact her host of Sonoma Valley friends are very glad to learn.

Mrs. O. R. Wagner, assisted by Mrs. T. M. Price, entertained the Congregational Ladies' Aid, Tuesday afternoon, at the home of the former lady. The meeting was an interesting one, over forty members being present. Reports from the various committees having had in charge the bazaar of last week reported that undertaking as having proved a satisfactory financial success. The ladies enjoyed the afternoon, and the lavish hospitality extended by their gracious hostesses, Mesdames Wagner and Price.

Mrs. J. A. Kinsella rewarded the nine boys who comprise her class at Sunday School for their interest and efforts in their studies, by arranging for the happy youths an afternoon of rare enjoyment at her home last Saturday. Mrs. Kinsella also invited a number of little girls to assist in adding to the merriment, and in the indulgence of all sorts of games and the discussion of delicious refreshments the afternoon proved one continuous round of jollity. It was with reluctance the buoyant "youngsters" bade their delightful hostess goodbye, vowing her "just the very best ever."

Miss Ada Smith, daughter of Assessor-elect J. C. Hoke Smith, who had been substituting in the Sonoma Grammar School, returned to her home in Santa Rosa, Friday of last week. Miss Smith is a very charming young woman, and made many friends during her several weeks' sojourn here.

At its meeting on Saturday last, the Sonoma County Board of Education set the dates of the teachers' examination in Sonoma county for December 19 and 24. The members of the board present were: County Superintendent Florence Barnes, E. B. Dykes, H. R. Bull, J. F. Prestwood and T. F. Browncombe.

The teacher and the pupils of the Caliente School wish to extend their sincere thanks to all those who helped in their recent entertainment; especially do they wish to thank the manager of the Boyes' Springs Resort, who gave to the school gratuitous use of the theatre. Thanks are also extended to some of the hotel attaches.

The pupils of Miss Florence Murphy were most pleased to extend to her cordial greetings when she appeared in the schoolroom, Monday morning, and resumed her

AN APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE OF SONOMA VALLEY

All over the United States the people are giving money and food for the relief of the starving Belgians.

The newspapers are telling of the activities of the various Belgian Relief Committees who are forwarding goods and money to the Coast for shipment.

The Relief Committees in California are making exceptional efforts to send a full ship load of goods. It is as if she would repay that seven-year-old kindness, when people hastened to help California.

Each County in our State is gathering together its donation.

Sonoma County wishes—has pledged herself—to send a car-load.

The Chamber of Commerce and the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club have taken up the task of securing donations from all the people of Sonoma Valley.

The following are the articles most needed: Flour, beans or peas or lentils, dried fruits of all kinds, rice, macaroni, bacon, canned goods of all kinds, clothing.

Goods will be displayed in the window of Duhring's store until forwarded.

Any of the delivery wagons will carry your gifts.

Money—and this is needed—may be sent to Dr. A. M. Thomson (President Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce), or to Mrs. Carrie A. Burlingame (president Sonoma Valley Woman's Club), or given to the following-named ladies who are appointed to solicit goods as well as money: Mesdames A. H. Bates, D. Stofen, M. Clewe, and L. V. Emparan.

When you order your groceries remember the Belgians and send some to them.

Let us be generous. Let us make the contribution from Sonoma Valley remarkable for quantity as well as quality.

Send in your contributions at once.

BENEFIT BALL AT KENWOOD

To be Given by the Kenwood Improvement Club at Their New Club House

The members of the Ladies' Improvement Club of Kenwood are certainly worthy of the greatest commendation for the energy they are expending in the improving of their enterprising home town.

The Club has a membership of over forty, and the ladies point with pride to their two thousand-dollar club house, which has just been completed, or, more properly speaking, partially so. When the Club's finances will permit, a commodious dining-room, kitchen and other conveniences will be added.

The Kenwood Club ladies are arranging for a Grand Ball, to be given in the new club house, Saturday night, Nov. 28th, and we are sure some of our pleasure-loving people will remember to be neighborly.

The fact that the Pauli-Hansen Orchestra is to furnish music will also prove another inducement to Sonomaites to be present. Refreshments are to be served, and a good time is promised all who attend.

The ball is in charge of Mesdames N. Wilson, J. Asplund, A. H. Beard, B. Kearns, and L. Markee.

Yesterday (Friday) afternoon in their new Club House, the Kenwood ladies presented the charming little play, "Jane," in the dramatic personae of the following: Mesdames J. Asplund, Frank Wilson, Misses Briggs and Beard, and Messrs. F. A. Whipper, Albin Asplund, Eaton Beards and Lawrence Buford.

REV. KIRTLAND PASSES AWAY

Sonoma residents deeply regret to learn of the demise of Rev. C. C. Kirtland, who passed away at Redwood City.

Deceased was born in Meriden, Connecticut, forty-four years ago, and for more than fourteen years had filled the pulpits of various Congregational churches in California towns. He officiated as pastor of the Sebastopol Church, prior to his locating in Sonoma twelve years ago. Leaving this city, Rev. Kirtland went to Redwood City, occupying the pulpit of the Congregational Church of that place for a period of eight years, going later to Lodi. While a resident of Lodi, about a year ago, Rev. Kirtland suffered a stroke of apoplexy, from which paralysis of the right side resulted, and he steadily declined in health. The end came at Redwood City, to which city he had been removed.

Deceased leaves a widow, two children—Margaret, aged thirteen, and Donald, aged eight years—his aged mother and brother John, to mourn his loss.

During his residence here, the family made many warm friends, all of whom deeply regret his passing in the prime of life. Those who knew the reverend gentleman well, pay to his personal worth the highest tribute.

The remains were laid to rest in Cypress Lawn Cemetery, Tuesday, beside those of his little daughter.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Junius is very glad to note that a girl's basketball team has at last been organized. Miss Johnson has undertaken the task of coaching them, and it is hoped that before long the girls will develop a basketball team that will win laurels in the basketball ball field.

Several of the students are going to Berkeley, Saturday, to attend the annual football game between California and Stanford Universities.

The basketball game with Petaluma High, which was to have been played last Friday, was called off owing to the fact that Petaluma has withdrawn from the League. In all probability Sonoma will be awarded the game on a forfeit.

Out-door recitations seem to be becoming very popular now. The general science class is having practical work outside, and on Friday the drawing class made out-door sketching trips.

Junius
El Verano Advance Club Will Give a Dance

A "Popularity Ball," to be given by the El Verano Advance Club, at the popular El Verano Villa, is to be the attraction in our progressive little northern neighbor Thanksgiving night. Frank Boisson, Tom Farrell, and Jack Mueller will have charge of the floor, and music is to be provided by the Perkins Orchestra (four pieces). The price of admission has been placed at the moderate sum of twenty-five cents.

POPULAR YOUNG PEOPLE BETROTHED

The announcement by Mrs. Katherine E. Buchan of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Marjorie, to Arthur M. Fisk, of Watsonville, although not altogether a surprise to the friends of the popular twain, yet the assurance that the betrothal is a fact is a bit of news that will be cordially received this morning.

Miss Buchan is one of the most delightful of our girls, highly talented, and with a legion of friends to shower with congratulations the happy bride elect and the fortunate and worthy young man who is to claim her as his bride.

The nuptials will be celebrated during the holidays.

EDWARD H. HART RETURNS THANKS

TO MY FRIENDS AND SUPPORTERS:

I wish publicly to extend to all my friends and supporters in the First Congressional district my sincere thanks for the assistance which they rendered to me in the recent Congressional campaign.

While the issue was determined adversely to our cause, I none the less appreciate the cordial and enthusiastic support so generously accorded me.

I suffered in the general catastrophe which befell the Republican party in California, and in looking over the returns of the election, some personal gratification is discovered in the fact that in the district in which I was a candidate I ran several thousand votes ahead of the ticket, and in all, but possibly one, of the eleven counties of the district received a larger vote—in some counties a much larger vote—than was cast for either our candidate for Governor or our candidate for United States Senator, and had it been possible under the circumstances to elect a Republican Congressman, I would have been chosen.

Republicans of California have no reason to feel either disheartened or discouraged over the result of the election. The era of individualism in the politics of our state will pass; individualism is not destined to supercede organized political parties, and California, which is fundamentally sound, will two years hence, reaffirm its belief in the political and economic policies of the Republican party under which the nation has always advanced in prosperity and safety, and will reassert its allegiance to the true and enduring principles upon which the party of Abraham Lincoln and William McKinley is founded.

Yours sincerely,
EDWARD H. HART.

DEATH SUMMONS MRS. WILLIS

Many hearts were saddened in our city when the news passed from lip to lip that with the early dawn of the Sabbath, the soul of Mrs. Wm. Willis had winged its way from its mortal tenement back to its Creator.

The passing of Mrs. Willis occurred in San Francisco, and followed an illness of a year or more, during all of which period she had been a patient sufferer, realizing that with the passing of each day she drifted nearer the Valley of Shadows, and awaiting the final summons with wonderful fortitude and resignation.

Mrs. Willis was a native of New York, but had resided in California since childhood. Life had lost for Mrs. Willis its charm and interest when death claimed her husband and children, and her greatest joy was in the bestowal of innumerable charities. Hers was a nature of rare sweetness and tenderness, and her fine womanhood and superb character ranked Mrs. Willis as the finest type. Her memory will be cherished in the hearts of all who were privileged to claim her as a friend.

Mrs. S. T. Enos was a sister-in-law of the much-loved woman who has laid aside life's duties, and a bond of affection closely united their hearts. Mrs. Enos has the sympathy of her host of friends in her bereavement.

The Editor Needs the Dough

A North Dakota exchange says: "It is reported that one of the fastidious newly-married ladies of this town kneads bread with her gloves on. This incident may be somewhat peculiar, but there are others, and I am one of them." "The editor of this paper needs bread with his shoes on; needs bread with his shirt on; needs bread with his pants on; but unless some of his delinquent subscribers pony up before long, he will need bread without a damn thing on and North Dakota is no Garden of Eden in winter time."—Ex.

VINEBURG NOTES

Easy Jim: I hereby take this manner to return my sincere thanks to my many loyal friends and the voters of Vineburg and vicinity in general for the majority I received on Nov. 3d, 1914. Vineburg is "true blue," believe me.

Very respectfully,
LESTER SMALL.

Mrs. Charles McDevitt and children, of Sonoma, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto, Sunday last.

Marshal Fornisave the State has gone "wet," but he has a red of lettuce that has gone "dry." How about that?

Theo. Artherian, one of Vineburg's best known citizens, transacted business in the metropolis on Saturday last.

George W. Reed, Sonoma's veteran station agent, and one of the best known citizens of Sonoma Valley, was a visitor at Batto's Spur, Sunday.

Mrs. Adam Adler and children, Miss Irma and Master Leland, accompanied by Miss Eleanor Kehoe, all of the Bear Flag City, were visitors in Vineburg on Sunday.

L. Quartaroli, ex-city trustee of Sonoma, attended the turkey shoot at Vineburg, on Sunday last, and was kept busy snaking hands with his many friends in this vicinity.

Fred Batto was a passenger on Wednesday morning's train to Contra Costa County, on business connected with the firm of John Batto & Sons and expects to be absent several days.

John Batto & son Arthur, accompanied by Misses Norma Figue, Mary and Evelyn Batto motored to Napa, Sunday afternoon, and were the guests of friends. Art had the wheel, and there was no time lost on the road.

After a two week's business trip through Mendocino County in his automobile, A. W. Lehrke returned home on Friday last, and after resting here a few days departed for the Bay City, Wednesday, accompanied by Mrs. Lehrke.

James L. Modini, Ed Peterson, Chas. Lewis, Clement Cornelius and

Fred Hansen, all of Sonoma, visited Vineburg Sunday last. The Sonoma baseball magnate, James L., said he got "four bull's eyes." Watch the price of turkeys rise.

About two hundred and twenty-five tons of grapes were harvested on the Hyde tract vineyards this season. Philip Bill, Jr., the popular foreman of the Hyde vineyards, deserves credit for the able manner in which he handled the large crop.

Chas. Groskopf, our popular teamster, has been a very busy man for the last week, and has hauled a number of loads of potatoes from "The Lake"—the Foster ranch. Charlie is always ready to do good work, and has good men and good teams to do it.

Miss Jessie Hiser accompanied by her brother Henry was a passenger on Saturday's morning train en route to the Exposition City, where she will be the guest of friends for two weeks. Her many home friends wish her a pleasant time and safe return.

Last Tuesday, there were shipped from the warehouses of John Batto & Sons, at Vineburg, two straight carloads of choice canned fruit, comprising eleven hundred and twenty-five cases of Bartlett pears, packed by the Sonoma Valley Canning Company of Buena Vista. This is the first shipment of canned fruit sent from Sonoma Valley. About ten thousand cases of various kinds of fruit are stored at the Batto warehouses awaiting shipment. Manager Ritz and son, Walter Ritz, have charge of the work of shipping the fruit.

One of the most successful turkey shoots and rallies was held on Sunday last, at A. W. Lehrke's New Vineburg Inn, and during the day between three and four hundred people assembled and took part in the game. Fred Hansen, the well-known drum major and poultry man of Sonoma, had charge of the target ranges, and this gentleman gave entire satisfaction to all patrons. People from all parts of the valley were present and also from San Francisco. Howard Brown, business manager for A. W. Lehrke, was on the reception committee, and handled his guests in fine style. About two hundred and fifty birds changed hands and everything passed off quietly in peaceful Vineburg.

EASY JIM.

SHELLVILLE

James E. Young, of San Francisco, spent Sunday here with his family.

Mrs. A. Silva, Jr. and her children, spent Wednesday at the Win Church home.

Miss Emma Pessano, of Oakland, was a guest Sunday last at the Louie Semino residence.

Josephine Steiner, of Sonoma, enjoyed a week-end visit with her aunt, Mrs. Jos. Keechler, of McGills.

Mrs. H. Pauli and her little daughter, have been visiting friends and relatives in San Francisco this week.

Mrs. Fred Helberg spent the week-end in San Francisco, enjoying a pleasant visit with her daughter, Valeria.

On Tuesday, Mrs. A. Moebes entertained the St. Barbara's guild and all who were present, had a most enjoyable afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Schumacher and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson enjoyed a "farmer's dance" at Napa last Saturday night.

Mrs. Tony Keiser, of Embarcadero, entertained Mesdames May and Georgie Burns, of the Bay City on Sunday last.

Vic Donohue who had been making his home in Petaluma for the last two years, is residing here again and working for Jos. Keechler.

A very pleasant surprise was tendered R. C. Waller, at his home in Shellville, Monday evening, to celebrate his birthday anniversary. The spacious dining room was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and chrysanthemums. Mrs. Waller was assisted in receiving and entertaining by Mrs. Alfred Edmonds and Miss Maude Muller, who are visiting at the Waller home. There was music and merriment until the wee sma' hours of the morning. A very nice repast, with the usual birthday cake and plenty of candles, was served and greatly enjoyed. Quite a number of friends from San Francisco motored up to wish Mr. Waller many happy returns of the day, and he received a number of costly gifts.

SCIOTS ARE COMING SATURDAY

Will Confer Third Degree on Member of Local Masonic Lodge Tonight

Tonight will be a "red letter" occasion in the history of Temple Lodge, No. 14, F. & A. M., and Sonoma is to have the distinction of entertaining about one hundred and fifty of the Masonic fraternity of San Francisco.

The Sciots, one hundred strong, with their Degree Team, are coming. They will confer the Third Degree on a candidate, after which a sumptuous banquet will be enjoyed by the visitors and their hosts at the Union Hotel.

Following the feast, something good in the vaudeville line will be "pulled off."

The weather permitting, the visitors will be entertained by their local brethren in sight-seeing trips through our valley, and we truly hope that the Sciots and their friends will carry away memories of a sunny November day, which enhanced the charms of this valley beautiful.

EXCURSION RATES NEXT WEEK

On account of the dedication of the California Counties Building at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in San Francisco Saturday, November 21, the Northwestern Pacific railroad announces a round trip rate from Sonoma of $1.35 good going Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 19 to 21, inclusive, and returning limit Monday, November 30.

The dedication of the California Counties Building will be an occasion of great interest to all sections of the state and with such a reduced rate by all railroad lines it is expected that there will be a large attendance. Special features will be provided and as the buildings and courts are now practically complete, it will give a fine opportunity for the public outside of San Francisco to visit the Fair grounds and see what has been done in preparing for the great Exposition which opens February 20 next.

CLUB MEETING IN PETALUMA

Women From All Over Sonoma
County Were Present at Gathering

The Sonoma County Council of Women's Clubs met with the Petaluma Club in its new Club house for an all-day's session, on Thursday, Nov. 12.

At roll call, the Saturday Afternoon, Philomath and Mother's Clubs of Santa Rosa; and the Woman's Clubs of Cloverdale, Healdsburg, Petaluma and Sonoma Valley responded.

Pleasing numbers on the program were papers by Mrs. I. E. Shaw, of Cloverdale, on "The Clubwoman and Her Responsibility to the Child," and Mrs. R. P. Hill on "University Extension Work," which showed how every citizen might get help from the University of California through correspondence or lecture courses without leaving his home town.

Among topics discussed were the work of establishing a county library, cleaning up and beautifying our county roads before 1915, and relief work for the Golden Gate Boys' and Girls' Home in charge of the Salvation Army at Lyton Springs, Sonoma County.

All returned to their homes, feeling that these meetings of our club women were invaluable to them and sure to bring about much good.

The Sonoma Valley Woman's Club was represented by Mesdames Carrie A. Burlingame, A. H. and H. F. Bates, L. V. Emparan, R. L. Watt and M. H. Eaton.

SLIGHT ACCIDENT PROVES SERIOUS

Neibli Maffei's Finger Amputated
After Being Punctured by Stick File

The many friends of Neibli Maffei are awaiting with considerable anxiety the outcome of the unfortunate accident of which he was the victim, Monday.

While 'phoning, the young man was lightly toying with a small stick file, which slipped, the point penetrating the index finger of the right hand. The infusion of turpentine into the wound killed the tissue, and within thirty-six hours the young man was suffering the excruciating agony which results from gangrene.

Dr. Gobar called Dr. Hennessey, of Napa, in consultation, and on Wednesday morning the young man was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, San Francisco, and the finger amputated.

At this writing, we are glad to note that the wound is clearing nicely, and it is not thought that further amputation will be necessary.
